Direct Deposit

L.C. Action is the hottest director in 5-Spot's Clubhouse. The funny thing is, L.C. doesn't direct movies or television shows—he directs deposits to the credit union! As L.C.'s new assistant director, get ready to help him with five different projects!

Heads and Tails

Our pennies, nickels, dimes and quarters usually have American presidents on the heads-side and a variety of images on the tails-side. The Googolplex animal coins are different: the heads are heads, and the tails are tails! Can you match one side of each coin with the other?

June Bugs

As the weather warms up, the Googolplex Gang is planning an outdoor picnic. Click and drag to help Natalie, Louie the Leprechaun, and Mad Doctor Xelplogoog take charge of their uninvited guests!

Swimming Lesson Ideas that Float

By Cameron Gamble, former Googolplex youth board member

This summer it'll be nice to swim in a cool pool. However, learning how to swim like a fish might cost money. Before you jump in, compare:

- Facilities and locations;
- Lesson dates and times;
- Number and length of classes.

In my city, fitness center and private lessons charge differently and have different schedules.

If you want to teach yourself in a public pool the only cost is getting in!

And the winner is...

You, no matter how you learn to swim! Whichever option you choose for learning how to swim, you will have a great time, meet new people, and become a healthier person.

- Visit your credit union's web site;
- Click on Googolplex;
- Click on 5-Spot Clubhouse and then on any item;
- Find the search box and type in "swimming lesson."
