Apartment Complex

There's not much vacancy in AJ's Apartment Avenue. These high-rises are already full of friendly families. Get to know 15 of the residents. When they close their windows tell us – from memory – who resides where. A word of warning: Each apartment building gets more complex than the last.

Stupor Bowl

You really should be getting ready for school. Too bad you've become obsessed with the colored marshmallows in your cereal bowl. Use your Googolplex spoon to scoop marshmallows out of the bowl, grabbing two or more marshmallows of the same color. Think it's that easy? They have to be touching each other! It's early in the morning, so we'll tally the results!

Swift

Swiftly has been featured in hundreds – maybe thousands – of the shortest stories ever told. His name has long been used to create adverb puns or silly word combinations with double-meanings. Here's one: "My pencil is dull," Tom said pointlessly. Get the joke? Tom's got plenty of them! Can you match the first half of each Tom Swiftly to its inevitable punch line?

Earn Extra Cash on Earth Day

By Dena Wessel, former Googolplex youth board member

When we celebrate Earth Day on April 22, here's a way to give back.

Think about your most important belief, find a group doing something about it, and earn extra cash to support them. My favorites:

- Wildlife Works (Wildlifeworks.com) gives poor families in other countries jobs, and conserves wild animals.
- Rainforest Concern (www.rainforestconcern.org) buys and protects acres of rainforest.

- Heifer International (heifer.org) sends animals to families in poverty who need food and income.
- Big Cat Rescue (bigcatrescue.org) cares for abused big cats and cats that can't go back to the wild.

Earn money to contribute by mowing lawns, baby sitting, washing cars, or simply asking. People will help you if they know where their money is going.

You're helping something big that affects everyone. And when you give, you feel good!
